KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would involve the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in one is made precisely as valuable as a dollar in the other.

We favor a tariff so regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer and a home market to the producer; and in connection with this we favor the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity. We believe that such a system will defray every Government expense, gradually liquidate all indebtedness, restore public confidence and relegate to the rear the undue excitement now prevailing concerning the currency. In view of the past financial history of the Democratic party, its devotion to the old state bank system and wildcat tendencies, we affirm that the Republican party can be more safely trusted to regulate the financial system of the Nation.

We favor an American policy which will protect Americans and American interests in any part of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with struggling Republics rather than ignorant monarchies.

Uncle Sam's Shortage.

The deficit in the National Treasury for the first 39 days of the present fiscal year is $13,934,904 38.

SECRETARY MORTON has issued a special order regulating the importation of sheep and lambs from Canada for immediate slaughter. These will be admitted into the United States hereafter when accompanied by certificates of health from the official veterinary inspector of the port of export or district in which the animals were raised, or an affidavit from the owner or importer that such animals are from the district covered by the certificate.

We have already referred to the manner in which the manufacturers of matches in the United Kingdom appeal to their customers to buy only English matches, by placing a little printed slip inside the cover of the box, asking the people to "patronize home industry, use English matches and employ British labor." Large signs bearing the same views can now be seen throughout the country districts of England. This is exactly what The American Protective Tariff League urges—namely, that the

Food

—But No Appetite

is a worse fix than "appetite but no food." Can you eat a meal with relish, or can't you? If you can't your stomach probably needs looking after, and this is the way to look after it: Take a tablespoonful of in a little water, three times a day for a week and you'll be surprised how well you'll feel, and how hungry you'll be, and— isn't this enough?

Brown's Iron Bitters is a medicine for all ages—children like it, and old persons nearly always need it.

It is pleasant to take and will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper.

American people should patronize American home industries, use American made goods, and employ American labor. The English and American manufacturers thus have precisely the same ideas.

Following the plan of the English match manufacturers, we find in another line of goods the following announcement on the outside of a cover of a package of British goods:

IMPORTANT.
Why Support the Manufacture of Other Countries When You Can Obtain as good an Article
MADE BY HOME INDUSTRY?

This is the appeal made by a London and Nottingham cigarette manufacturing concern which finds that its offer to give a "tube to each cigarette, matches and photo in each package" is not sufficient to secure all the trade it desires. Possibly the English dudes prefer American made cigarettes and do not find that they "can obtain as good an article made by home industry" in England. The belief in a policy of Protection, however, is taking very generally throughout the United Kingdom.

Rev. W. D. Rice is conducting a meeting at Beasley Church.

In order to draw trade, a number of the enterprising jobbing merchants of this city will send complimentary tickets to their customers, inviting them to attend the Blue Ribbon Fair. That's the sort of enterprise that wins.

HIS SUCCESSOR.

Speculation as to Who Will Succeed Judge Jackson.

The President Will Likely Choose a Man From New York

Owing to the Widely Scattered Location of the Supreme Justices it is Probable That Only Two or Three Will Be Able to Attend the Funeral.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Arrangements for official participation in the funeral of the late Associate Justice Jackson at Westmead, Nashville, Sunday afternoon, owing to the widely scattered locations of the members and officers of the supreme court necessarily have to be made by telegraph and nothing has yet been decided.

Chief Justice Fuller is at his summer home, Sorrento, Me., and the associate justices are scattered over the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It is not probable, therefore, that there will be more than two or three of the justices in attendance. All of them have been advised of the death of their associate by Miss Mayme Tompkins, assistant to the marshal of the court, and they will doubtless notify her of their intentions in the matter. As yet, however, no responses have been received from any of them. Marshal Wright, who is at his home in Louisville, will attend the funeral.

Speculations as to the succession have already been indulged in, although there will be no appointment by President Cleveland before congress meets. The circuit over which the deceased justice presided by allotment of the court comprises the states of Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee, but it is the general opinion that the selection of a successor will be made without regard to territory. Since the death of Justice Blatchford, the state of New York has been without a representative on the bench, and it is believed that the president will go there for a successor to Justice Jackson. Whether or not he will again attempt to place Mr. Peckham or Mr. Hornblower on the bench is in doubt. The names of Secretary Carlisle, Postmaster General Wilson and Don M. Dickinson are also heard in the discussion.

The name of Representative Josiah Patterson, of Tennessee, will probably be called to the attention of the president, as he comes from the state of the late justice, and is known as a most loyal friend of Cleveland. The names of Don M. Dickinson and Solicitor-General Holmes Conrad are also mentioned.

MONEY FOR THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY. WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—The Catholic university has received a donation of $2,500 from M. L. Huffer, of Paris, to be added to the library fund.

AMERICANS MUST BE PROTECTED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Minister Denby has been instructed by Acting Secretary Adee to secure protection for American citizens at Panyag, China, a place about forty miles from Foo Chow, where the American mission is reported to have been looted by the Chinese. No additional outrages have been reported to the state department Friday. WILL ATTEND THE JACKSON FUNERAL. WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Friday evening Miss Tompkins was advised of the departure of Chief Justice Fuller and Associate Justice Brewer, who had been visiting the chief justice, from Sorrento to attend the funeral. Mr. Frederick E. Chapin, private secretary of Justice Jackson, left Washington Friday night to attend the obsequies.

MADMAN'S ACT.

Three Persons Wounded, One of Whom Will Die.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 10.—Three persons were wounded, and one will probably die as the result of a madman's act early Friday morning. Urban Eis, aged 32 years, 2734 Hartford avenue, shot his brother-in-law, Charles A. Pfeiffer, in the right arm, then shot Mrs. Margaret Pfeiffer in the left breast and finally shot himself in the forehead. The wounds of Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer are slight, but Eis will probably die. It is thought Eis was temporarily demented. Their wives, are sisters, their maiden name being Jippard. While the men have been friends they have not been intimate, and it is thought the shooting was the outgrowth of some fancied slight from Pfeiffer to Eis.

Politicians' Fatal Quarrel.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 10.—A special from Brandon, the county seat of Rankin county, says that a difficulty occurred on the street there Friday morning between J. H. Dinkins and Dabney Marshall in which the former was shot and killed. Marshall is a member of the legislature from Warren county, and Dinkins is a local politician of some prominence. It is understood that the shooting grew out of politics.

HUNTERS' DISCOVERY.

A Cavern in Greenup County With Human Bones Inside.

GREENUP, Ky., Aug. 10.—A party of hunters, composed of Charles Marvin, Alex. Delaney and James A. Redd, who had been out in the southern part of this county on a hunting expedition, returned home Thursday evening. While on the ridge that divides Greenup and Carter counties, near Charlotte Furnace, Delaney wounded a wild turkey to such an extent that it could not fly, and started down the Greenup side of the hill in pursuit of it. When near the foot of the hill he found that a large boulder which the recent rains had dislodged impeded his progress, and, upon looking around, he discovered that the removed stone had formerly closed the opening to a large cave. He signaled to his friends, and upon their arrival they decided to explore the cavern.

At first it was necessary for them to crawl upon their hands and knees, but the farther under ground they got the larger the passage became, and when they had reached a distance of about 150 feet from the mouth they were able to walk upright, and soon they came to a large room, about eighteen or twenty feet square and twelve feet high. Here they found a large pile of bones, which by the neighborhood physician was pronounced to be those of human beings, when taken to him for examination, but they were of so many different sizes he was unable to say whether they were of white people or Indians. That they were of the latter is the more probable, as the oldest man in that vicinity, James H. Masson, says that that boulder had been in the same place ever since he could remember, and he has lived within a mile of it all his life, and is now past 80 years of age, and previous to that time there were very few white people in that part of this end of the state.

The cave was alive with bats, and among them was a large flock of white ones, the first ever seen anywhere near here. Mr. Marvin caught seven of them and brought them home with him. They are almost as white as snow.

Many people have visited this cavern since these men discovered it, and all pronounce it one of the most perfectly formed caves in that section, where there are several.

COURT-MARTIALED.

Three Derelicts of Company D, Second Regiment, Under Fire.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 10.—Three members of Company D, Second regiment, Kentucky state guards, were court-martialed here Thursday night. Maj. J. E. Allen presiding, with Capt. C. W. Longmier as judge advocate. The culprits were Frank Hourk, for non-attendance at the regimental encampment; Albert Walters, absence from drill, and A. Thomson, for wearing uniform when not on duty. The results of the court are secret, and were forwarded to Gov. Brown at Frankfort Friday.

Gov. Brown Returns.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 10.—Gov. Brown returned Friday from Henderson, where he has been for the past week, a guest of honor at the Third regiment encampment. Rosa Gordon Acquitted.

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., Aug. 10.—Rosa Gordon has been acquitted of the murder of Mary Sutherland and the serious wounding of Melissa Brown at a disorderly house near Corbin, where all were inmates. Much surprise was expressed at the verdict, but it was due to the fact that the only two witnesses for the commonwealth could give no convincing evidence. The attorneys for the defense claimed self-defense.

Senator Lindsay's Chance.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 10.—There is a sensational story circulated in inside circles that Cleveland decided some time ago, in the event of Justice Jackson's death, to appoint Senator Lindsay, of Kentucky, to fill the place and put Carlisle in line for the presidency by electing him in Lindsay's place.

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home?" And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
